

Lamino celebrates
its 50th birthday

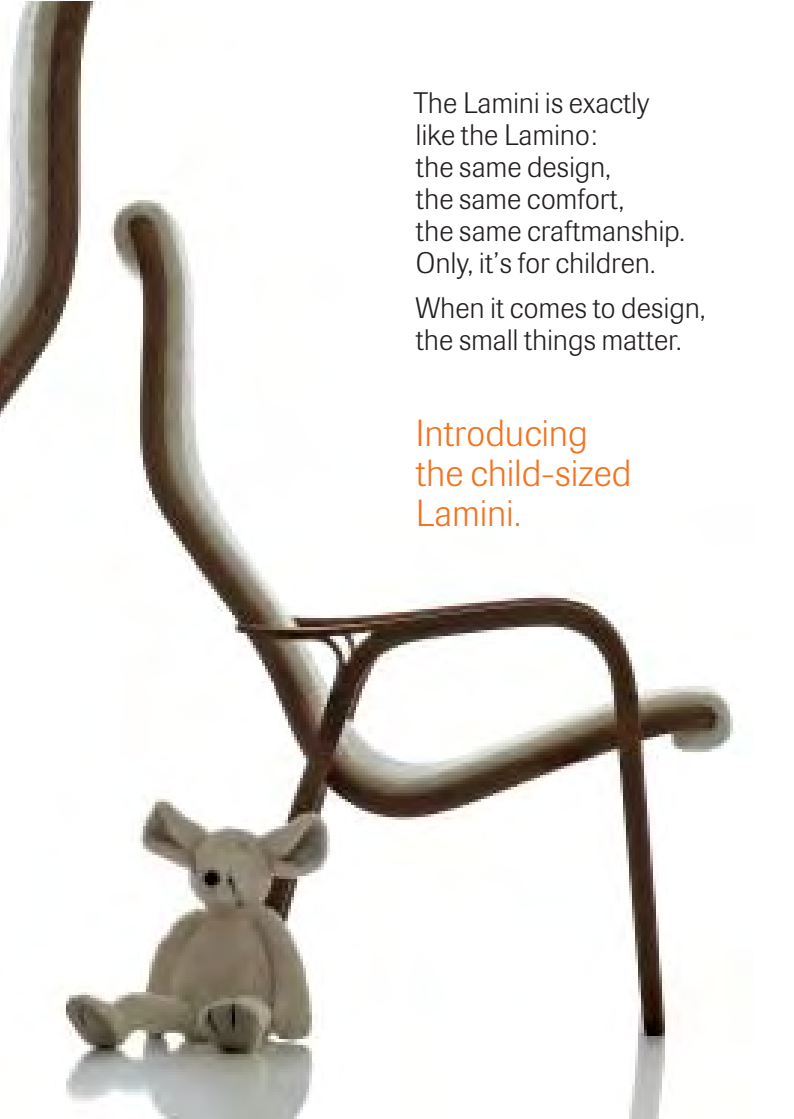

still a child at heart.

After fifty years,
we decided
it was time
for a change.
A small change.

Lamini är likadan
som Lamino:
samma design,
samma komfort,
samma hantverksskicklighet.
Fast den är för barn.

När det gäller design
är det lilla det viktiga.

A child-sized wooden chair with a curved backrest and a simple seat. The chair is made of light-colored wood. A small, light-colored stuffed rabbit is sitting on the floor next to the chair. The background is plain white.

The Lamini is exactly
like the Lamino:
the same design,
the same comfort,
the same craftsmanship.
Only, it's for children.

When it comes to design,
the small things matter.

Introducing
the child-sized Lamini.

Yngve Ekström, the designer.

Yngve Ekström certainly knew the value of detail, but he did not think small. More than 150 of his designs were produced. He founded Swedese in 1945 and became one of Sweden's leading furniture designers in the golden years of Scandinavian Modern. For Swedese he designed the Lamino in 1956. So successful it was dubbed the 20th Century's Best Swedish Furniture Design.

Yngve Ekström förstod verkligen vikten av detaljer, men han tänkte inte smått. Han formgav mer än 150 produkter. Han grundade Swedese 1945 och blev en av Sveriges ledande möbelformgivare. Bäst känd ur hans stora produktion är fåtöljen Lamino. Så framgångsrik att den valdes till 1900-talets Bästa Svenska Möbeldesign.

Swedese, the producer.

Swedese is known not only for quality furniture in bent, laminated wood. Today, Swedese is just as much a modern producer of upholstered furniture with a high degree of comfort and technical innovation. Craftmanship alongside Swedese's ideals to create beautiful furniture for the future has resulted in numerous design awards all over the world. Good design is universal.

Swedese är känt inte bara för kvalitetsmöbler i böjd, skiktlimmad fanér. Företaget är också en modern producent av stoppmöbler med en hög nivå av komfort och teknisk innovation. Hantverksskicklighet i kombination med Swedeses idé att skapa vackra möbler för framtiden har resulterat i talrika designutmärkelser runt om i världen. God design är universell.

From new to classic and back again.

Every now and then the Lamino is presented in new materials. To celebrate the 50th birthday there is a limited edition in saddle leather. A classic, reborn.

Då och då presenterar vi Lamino i nya material. För att fira 50-årsdagen finns det en begränsad upplaga i sadelläder. En klassiker, pånyttfödd.
